A LITTLE PIECE OF ME

My mind is always trying to create something: concept, drawing, website... Every idea deserves consideration, whether to build it from scratch, or to improve an existing one and take it to the next level.

GET TO KNOW ME

I loved to blog

I created 10 years ago a humorous equestrian blog with draws, where I published many articles. Thanks this blog, I obtained fabulous partnerships and contracts with recognized brands. Today, the adventure continues on Instagram and I participate in many equestrian projects. > @soonahorse

A curious job

I was a pyrotechnician at Atlantic Pyro Service (17) for 5 years, from preparing bombs to setting off fireworks.
